- Personal effects are not insured by SSC and you are advised to take out your own cover for clothing and possessions. Valuables are not to be left in the changing rooms
- The member and any companions are required to have consideration for other people. If, in the club's reasonable opinion, they behave in such a way as to cause or be likely to cause danger, upset or distress to any third party or to damage property, SSC is entitled, without prior written notice to terminate the use of the club and its facilities
- All members must accept responsibility for their own safety and follow the Standard Operating Procedures of the club
- Members (and their parents/carers in the case of members under 18) are deemed to be aware that sailing has inherent risks and that they accept those risks willingly. For example; drowning, hypothermia, fire on board and injury from the boom are all possibilities. Similarly, pontoons and the beach may pose a slip/trip hazard particularly when launching and/or recovering a boat. The Standard Operating Procedures of the club should minimise these hazards but it is essential that all club members and visitors are aware of their existence and their own responsibility to implement sensible behaviours to minimise risk.
